SKILLS

HTML— my personal site

My portfolio serves as a representation of my professional identity, providing a centralized hub for potential employers to gain insight into my skills, achievements, and the value I bring to the table.

The portfolio highlights key projects, demonstrates my proficiency in various tools and technologies, and offers a glimpse into my problem-solving approach.

Banking system — using javaFX

Mini-project to design and implement a Simple Banking System using JavaFX. This project not only allowed me to deepen my understanding of Java programming but also provided hands-on experience with creating a user-friendly graphical interface
